THE EAGLE

EDITED BY The

CLASS of 1961

PARKSLEY HIGH SCHOOL

PARKSLEY, VIRGINIA

Principal's Message

Congratulations to another class of fine boys and girls for your splendid efforts in recording some of the important events of your life here within these venerable walls of learning. It is our sincere desire that these experiences have contributed much to the growth and development of your personalities, and have guided you toward maturity and the possession of a profound sense of values and beliefs. We hope that these days of participation in classes and extracurricular activities have rewarded your quest for knowledge and that you will enjoy pleasant memories of your association with both schoolmates and faculty. May we always cherish these fond memories.

G. J. Huckstep

Dedication

DEDICATED TO A MEMORY DEAR TO OUR HEARTS

We dedicate this 1961 EAGLE to PARKSLEY HIGH SCHOOL. We dedicate it not merely to the stone and the brick of which these buildings are made. To us, the real meaning of the school must be expressed in its ideals and the high purposes for which it was founded.

The grounds where we have spent many hours, the halls down which we have walked leisurely or sped madly in fear of being late, the classrooms in which we have struggled for knowledge---with these our memories linger. The football games, the dances, the plays, our prom, that term paper---these we shall always remember. Friendships, happiness, trouble, sadness---each experience has had its small part in creating and completing our high school days.

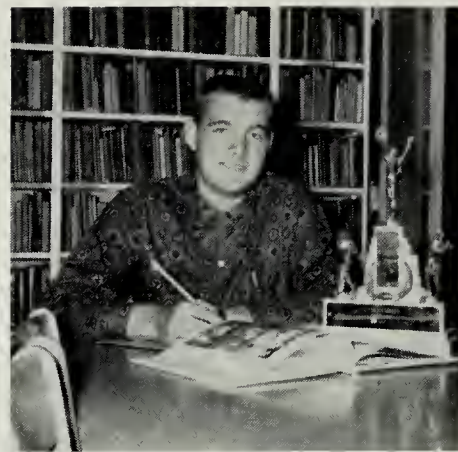

This school---the stone and the brick---are no longer ours, but we shall carry with us the memories as we graduate. Therefore, we, the seniors, dedicate the 1961 EAGLE to PARKSLEY HIGH SCHOOL, a memory dear to our hearts.

plump."

KENNETH BANKS
Vice President
"Just when I nearly had the eight ball in the corner pocket,
the siren blew."

MARY BUNDICK
Secretary
"I just hate silence."

BILLIE ROBINSON
Treasurer
"Won't somebody please pay their dues?"

BETTY ANNIS
"There's a sparkle in my eye, but it's not as big as the one on my finger."

MILLARD BERRY
"I was a ninety-seven pound weakling, and look at me now."

BETTY BARNES
"My car isn't big enough for all these passengers;
I'm going to have to get a bus for Christmas."

ESTHEL BAGWELL
"I don't care what you say; his batting average is
.375."

DAVID BUNDICK
"It is not flirting;
it's just being friendly."

DONNA EWELL
"I'm not advertising Pepsodent;
I'm just happy."

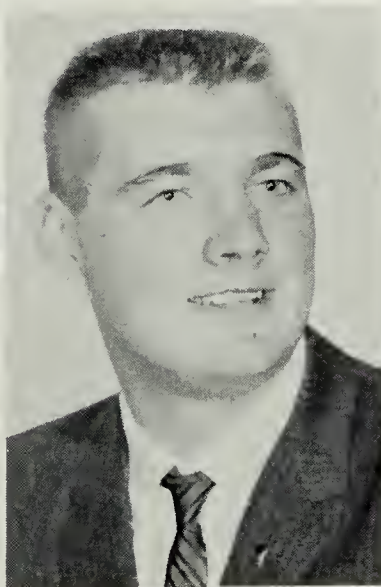

JESSIE CLINE
"I'm like a volcano, calm on the surface, but there's a roar be low."

ELSIE BYRD
"It may not be Trigger, but it trots!"

JAMES COLONNA
"Girls might not know that the gas line coming from the fuel line is connected to the carburetor, but I like them anyway."

PATRICIA GREENE
"I just love the strong, silent type."

BURTON FURNISS
"I may not be an angel, but I sure can fly."

CONSTANCE GODWIN
"For once in my life, I can't think of a thing to say."

KENNETH JUSTIS
"I'll tell you why my memory isn't so good - - oops,
I forgot."

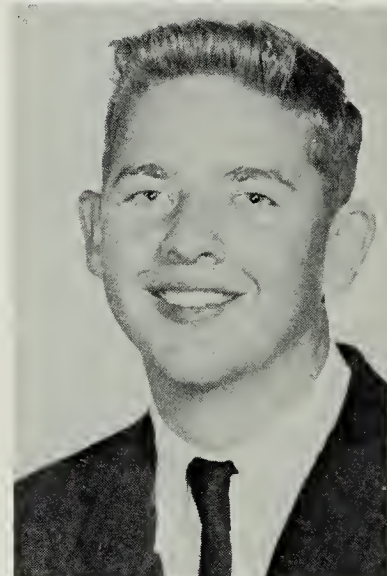

PATRICIA KIEFER
"Who said you couldn't ride on two wheels?"

JOHNNIE LONG
"All you have to do is ask; I'll tell you."

AMY KILLMON
"I'm not lazy; I just conserve my energy."

LARRY McCREADY
"They say they like my wavy hair,
but I don't trust them."

JOHN PARKS
"My car may be small, but there is room for two."

KATHRYN KNIGHT
"I don't care what
Mr. Sawyer says; I'm going to be the first woman President."

JAMES MILES
"Don't let my shy look fool you; I can throw passes
as well as catch them."

MARTHA LYNCH
"I'm not crying;
I'm laughing!"

LINDA PEPPLER

"My, it's hot in here; let me take off my ring."

JAMES PARRISH

"My track shoes come in handy, both on and off the field."

SALLY SMACK

"Everything I like is either illegal, improper, or fattening."

ALVIN SIMPSON

"I'm so popular they even named a song after me."

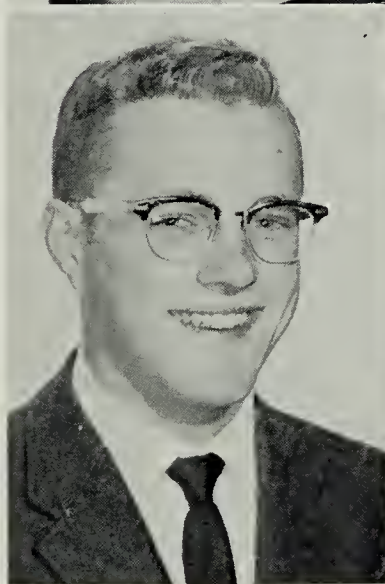

NEAL SPRAGUE

"I'm always one of three things, hungry, thirsty, or both."

CHARLOTTE YOUNG

"My hair color is really real. It's not 'Light and Bright.'"

PAUL SOUDER

"I'm going to tell that Einstein a thing or two."

JEAN TAYLOR

"You mean to tell me you never heard of Justisville."

SUSAN YOUNG

"I'm not quiet; I just can't get a word in edgewise."
